
1. What is the difference between latent authoritarianism and activating events, phenomena, and candidates? How is this distinction relevant to American politics as of 2016?

2. Why is it useful to measure authoritarianism through questions asking about a person’s preferred parenting style?

3. What kinds of threats do authoritarians react strongly on? On what kinds of threats do authoritarians react in similar ways to non-authoritarians?