1. Describe two ways that American political institutions are distinctive compared to other Western democracies.

2. Describe two ways that American public policies are distinctive compared to other Western democracies.

3. Describe two ways that American values and beliefs are distinctive compared to other Western democracies.