Life of Christ

The Master’s College
One Solitary Life

Nearly two thousand years ago in an obscure village, a child was born of a peasant woman. He grew up in another village where he worked as a carpenter until He was thirty.

Then for three years he became an itinerant preacher. This man never went to college or seminary. He never wrote a book. He never held a public office. He never had a family nor owned a home. He never put His foot inside a big city nor traveled even 200 miles from His birthplace. And though He never did any of the things that usually accompany greatness, throngs of people followed Him. He had no credentials but Himself.

While He was still young, the tide of public opinion turned against Him. His followers ran away. He was turned over to His enemies and went through the mockery of a trial. He was sentenced to death on a cross between two thieves. While He was dying, His executioners gambled for the only piece of property He had on earth – the simple coat He had worn. His body was laid in a borrowed grave provided by a compassionate friend. But three days later this Man arose from the dead – living proof that He was, as He had claimed, the Savior whom God had sent, the Incarnate Son of God.

Nineteen centuries have come and gone and today the risen Lord Jesus Christ is the central figure of the human race. On our calendars His birth divides history into two eras. One day of every week is set aside in remembrance of Him. And our two most important holidays celebrate His birth and resurrection. On church steeples around the world His cross has become the symbol of victory over sin and death. This one Man’s life has furnished the theme for more songs, books, poems and paintings than any other person or event in history. Thousands of colleges, hospitals, orphanages and other institutions have been founded in honor of this One who gave His life for us.

All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the governments that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned have not changed the course of history as much as this

One Solitary Life.
I. INTRODUCTION TO THE LIFE OF CHRIST

A. Non-Biblical References to Jesus

Question: Are there other early references to Jesus apart from the Gospel accounts?

1. Pagan Writers

a. Pilate's Report to Tiberius ("Acta Pilati")

Justin Martyr, First Apology 35:9; 48:3 (ca. 150 A.D.)

In referring to the crucifixion and Jesus' miracles, he states: "That these things happened you may learn from the 'Acts' which were recorded under Pontius Pilate." "That he performed these miracles you may easily satisfy yourself from the 'Acts' of Pontius Pilate."

b. Tacitus, Roman Annals XV, 44 (ca. 115 A.D.)

In mentioning how Nero blamed the fire of Rome on the Christians, he states: "They got their name from Christ, who was executed by sentence of the procurator Pontius Pilate in the reign of Tiberius."

2. Jewish Writers

a. Josephus Antiquities, XVIII, 63ff (ca. 90 A.D.)

In discussing the various troubles that befell the people of Judea during the governorship of Pontius Pilate (26-36 A.D.), he states:

"Now there was about this time Jesus, a wise man, if it be lawful to call him a man, for he was a doer of wonderful works, a teacher of such men as receive the truth with pleasure. He drew over to him both many of the Jews, and many of the Gentiles. He was the Christ. And When Pilate, at the suggestion of the principal men amongst us, had condemned him to the cross, those that loved him at the first did not forsake him; for he appeared to them alive again at the third day; as the divine prophets had foretold these and ten thousand other wonderful things concerning him. And the tribe of Christians, so named from him, are not extinct at this day."
b. Babylonian Talmud

(1) Tractate Sanhedrin 43a (rabi quoted ca. 150 A.D.)

"Jesus was hanged on Passover Eve. Forty days previously the herald had cried, 'He is being led out for stoning, because he has practiced sorcery and led Israel astray and enticed them into apostasy. Whosoever has anything to say in his defense, let him come and declare it.' As nothing was brought forward in his defense, he was hanged on Passover Eve."

"'Ulla said: 'Would you believe that any defense would have been so zealously sought for him? He was a deceiver, and the All-merciful says: 'You shall not spare him, neither shall you conceal him.' It was different with Jesus, for he was near to the kingship.'"

(2) There are other references to one "Jesus Ben Pantera" who was accused of sorcery and idolatry; to Jesus' disciples, to Mary, and other references to his followers. These passages, however, are hotly debated and it is questioned by some that they refer to the "Jesus" of the New Testament, but perhaps to another by the same name.

3. Christian Writers

a. The "unwritten sayings" (the "agraphe")

Acts 20:35 records an authentic utterance of Jesus not found in the Gospels. Church Fathers of the 2nd century record approximately 15-20 other sayings of Jesus which they felt were preserved by "oral tradition." It is difficult to assess the validity of these "unwritten sayings."
(see A.T. Robertson's Harmony of the Gospels, 302-303 & Van Bruggen, 43-45))

b. The "infancy gospels"

(1) Protevangel of James (2nd century A.D.)
- mentions that Mary's parents were Joachim and Anna

(2) Infancy Gospel of Thomas e.g. When Jesus fashioned 12 birds from clay on the Sabbath day, he clapped his hands and they flew off.

These accounts are manifestly spurious (see John 2:11), and were composed to satisfy the reader's curiosity about matters of which the New Testament is silent.

(Note: For further discussion of this subject, see Bruce and Van Bruggen in the Bibliography)
c. The “Q” Document

The document that the author of Matthew used along with the Gospel of Mark to compile his work. It consists solely of Jesus’ sayings (“logia”).

Problems:

d. The “Gospel of Thomas”

Discovery: 1945 Nag Hammadi, Egypt, w/ other documents in Coptic

Contents: a “sayings” gospel attributed to the apostle Thomas

Most (in)famous saying, # 114: Simon Peter said to them, "Make Mary leave us, for females don't deserve life." Jesus said, "Look, I will guide her to make her male, so that she too may become a living spirit resembling you males. For every female who makes herself male will enter the kingdom of Heaven."

4. Archaeological Discoveries

Until recently, it could be said that no tangible first century discoveries related to Jesus had ever been made (apart from relics which cannot be authenticated and the traditional tomb). This however, is no longer the case. In the Fall of 2002, it became public that an Israeli collector has had in his possession for a number of years a limestone box that may have once contained the bones of James, the half-brother of Jesus. He is referred to by name in Matthew 13:55; Mark 6:3 and I Corinthians 15:7. This is the James who was also leader of the early Jerusalem church (Acts 12:17; 15:13; 21:18). He is also generally recognized as the author of the epistle of James (1:1).

What is an “ossuary?”

What is written on it?

יוסף בר יוסף יוחי דרשה

of Jesus brother Joseph son of Jacob (James)

What is the “scientific” opinion of its antiquity?

Could it be a fraud?

What is its significance?

   a. Baptism (Section 27: Mt. 3:13-17; Mk. 1:9-11; Lk. 3:21-23)

   ![Map of Galilee and Temptation Route]

   Many scholars place John's baptismal ministry at a point on the middle reaches of the Jordan River, where trade routes converge at a natural ford not far from the modern site of Tell Shalem. The Biblical "Bethany on the other side of the Jordan" has not been definitely identified.

   c. Arrival in Galilee (Section 42: Jn. 4:43-45)
C. Great Galilean Ministry (Sections 43-132)

This, the longest period in Jesus ministry, actually covers two distinct phases—(1) a period of public preaching and healing in Galilee in which an increasing opposition to Jesus developed (Sections 43-102); and (2) a period of withdrawal in which Jesus trains His disciples in a more private ministry (Sections 103-132). The first, more public period is marked by miracles and preaching. The second, more private period, is marked by parables and teaching.

1. Rejection at Nazareth and Home in Capernaum (Sections 43-49)

The "I AM" Statements

Twenty-three times in all we find our Lord's meaningful "I AM" (ego eimi, Gr.) in the Greek text of this gospel (4:26; 6:20,35,41,48,51; 8:12,18,24,28,58; 10:7,9,11,14; 11:25; 13:19; 14:6; 15:1,5; 18:5,6,8). In several of these, He joins His "I AM" with seven tremendous metaphors which are expressive of His saving relationship toward the world:

- "I AM the Bread of life" (6:33,41,48,51).
- "I AM the Light of the world" (8:12).
- "I AM the Door of the sheep" (10:7,9).
- "I AM the Good Shepherd" (10:11,14).
- "I AM the Resurrection and the Life" (11:25).
- "I AM the Way, the Truth, and the Life" (14:6).
- "I AM the true Vine" (15:1,5).

Passion Week

4. Clearing of the temple
   MONDAY
   Mt 21:10-17; Mk 11:15-18; Lk 19:45-48
   The next day he returned to the temple and found the court of the Gentiles full of traders and money changers making a large profit as they gave out Jewish coins in exchange for "pagan" money. Jesus drove them out and overturned their tables.

5. Day of controversy and parables
   TUESDAY
   IN JERUSALEM
   Jesus evaded the traps set by the priests.
   ON THE MOUNT OF OLIVES
   OVERLOOKING JERUSALEM
   (Tuesday afternoon, exact location unknown)
   He taught in parables and warned the people against the Pharisees. He predicted the destruction of Herod's great temple and told his disciples about future events, including his own return.

6. Day of rest
   WEDNESDAY
   Not mentioned in the Gospels
   The Scriptures do not mention this day, but the counting of the days (Mk 14:1; Jn 12:1) seems to indicate that there was another day about which the Gospels record nothing.

7. Passover
   Last Supper
   THURSDAY
   Mt 20:17-30; Mk 14:12-26; Lk 22:7-23; Jn 13:1-38
   In an upper room Jesus prepared both himself and his disciples for his death. He gave the Passover meal a new meaning. The loaf of bread and cup of wine represented his body soon to be sacrificed and his blood soon to be shed. And so he instituted the, "Lord's Supper." After singing a hymn they went to the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus prayed in agony, knowing what lay ahead for him.

8. Crucifixion—FRIDAY
   Following betrayal, arrest, desertion, false trials, denial, condemnation, beatings and mockery, Jesus was required to carry his cross to "The Place of the Skull," where he was crucified with two other prisoners.

9. In the tomb
   Jesus' body was placed in the tomb before 6:00 PM. Friday night, when the Sabbath began and all work stopped, and it lay in the tomb throughout the Sabbath.

10. Resurrection—SUNDAY
   Mt 28:1-13; Mk 16:1-20; Lk 24:1-48; Jn 20:1-31
   Early in the morning, women went to the tomb and found that the stone closing the tomb's entrance had been rolled back. An angel told them Jesus was alive and gave them a message. Jesus appeared to Mary Magdalene in the garden, to Peter, to two disciples on the road to Emmaus, and later that day to all the disciples but Thomas. His resurrection was established as a fact.

11. Great Teacher
    JESUS
    Mt 22:34-40
    The Teacher questioned the scribes and Pharisees about the greatest commandment. Their answer was correct, so Jesus chose to repeat what they had said. He then challenged the Teacher to answer the question: "Who is my neighbor?" The Teacher answered, "A Samaritan." Jesus taught the Teacher that love is the characteristic of every Christian, and that one should love even his adversary.
c. Cursing of Fig Tree & Cleansing Temple (Section 188-89 - MONDAY: Mk. 11:12-18; Mt. 21:12-19; Lk. 19:45-48)

Jerusalem during the Ministry of Jesus

The "THIRD WALL" (shown with dotted line) was begun by Herod Agrippa I between A.D. 41 and 44 to enclose the growing northern suburbs, but the work was apparently stopped. Its construction was resumed, in haste, only after the First Jewish Revolt broke out in A.D. 66.

The "SECOND WALL" was built by Herod I or by earlier Hasmonean kings. Precise location is difficult to determine. This wall was put up around a market area in a valley, protecting it from raiding and looting, but was of questionable military value. At its eastern end, however, Herod built a military barracks (Antonia Fortress).

The "FIRST WALL," so named by Josephus, encircled the city during the Hasmonean period, 167 B.C. After the revolt led by Judas Maccabaeus in 167, Jerusalem expanded steadily in a period of independence under its own Jewish kings.

Herod's Towers
Herod's Royal Palace
MT. ZION (Upper City)

Archaeological excavations have revealed a monumental stoneway and the continuation of Tyropoeon Street, that lies along the valley called "Way of the Cheesemongers" by Josephus.

The Siloam Aqueduct-Tunnel was cut 1,749 ft. through solid bedrock, was S11' high (average) and followed an S-shaped course made necessary by engineering difficulties. It was carved by Herod and provided water during the siege (2Chr 32:30). Water flows through it to this day.

Buildings, streets and roads shown here are artist's concept only unless otherwise named and located. Wall heights remain generally unknown, except for those surrounding the Temple Mount.

Deep valleys on the east, south and west permitted urban expansion only to the north.

* Location generally known, but style of architecture is unknown; artist's concept only, and Roman architecture is assumed.
 Location and architecture unknown, but referred to in written history; shown here for illustrative purposes.
 Ancient feature has remained, or appearance has been determined from evidence.
Herod's Temple

20 BC.—A.D. 70

Begun in 20 B.C., Herod's new structure towered 15 stories high, following the floor dimensions of the former temples in the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place. The high sanctuary shown here in a cutaway view was built on the site of the former temples of Solomon and Zerubbabel, and was completed in just 18 months.

Dimensions of rooms, steps, doorways, cornices, and exterior measurements are mentioned in history (Josephus and the Mishnah) but are subject to interpretation, and all drawings vary.

Jewish Sects

PHARISEES
Their roots can be traced to the second century b.c.—to the Hasidim.
1. Along with the Torah, they accepted as equally inspired and authoritative all material contained within the oral tradition.
2. On free will and determination, they held to a mediating view that made it impossible for either free will or the sovereignty of God to cancel out the other.
3. They accepted a rather developed hierarchy of angels and demons.
4. They taught that there was a future for the dead.
5. They believed in the immortality of the soul and in reward and retribution after death.
6. They were champions of human equality.
7. The emphasis of their teaching was ethical rather than theological.

SADDUCEES
They probably had their beginning during the Hasmonaic period (166-3 b.c.). Their demise occurred c. a.c. 70 with the fall of Jerusalem.
1. They denied that the oral law was authoritative and binding.
2. They interpreted Mosaic law more literally than did the Pharisees.
3. They were very exacting in Levitical purity.
4. They attributed all to free will.
5. They argued there is neither resurrection of the dead nor a future life.
6. They rejected a belief in angels and demons.
7. They rejected the idea of a spiritual world.
8. Only the books of Moses were canonical Scripture.

ESSENES
They probably originated among the Hasidim, along with the Pharisees, from whom they later separated (I Maccabees 2:42; 7:13). They were a group of very strict and zealous Jews who took part with the Maccabees in a revolt against the Syrians, c. 165-155 b.c.
1. They followed a strict observance of the purity laws of the Torah.
2. They were notable for their communal ownership of property.
3. They had a strong sense of mutual responsibility.
4. Daily worship was an important feature along with a daily study of their sacred scriptures.
5. Solemn oaths of piety and obedience had to be taken.
6. Sacrifices were offered on holy days and during sacred seasons.
7. Marriage was not condemned in principle but was avoided.
8. They attributed all that happened to fate.

ZEALOTS
They originated during the reign of Herod the Great c. 6 b.c. and ceased to exist in a.c. 73 at Masada.
1. They opposed payment of tribute for taxes to a pagan emperor, saying that allegiance was due only to God.
2. They held a fierce loyalty to the Jewish traditions.
3. They were opposed to the use of the Greek language in Palestine.
4. They prophesied the coming of the time of salvation.

2a. ARGUMENTS for this position (W. G. Scroggie)
   1.) Matthew 12:40 - 3 full days & 3 full nights
   2.) Too many events between Christ's death at 3 pm and His burial at 6 pm (Scroggie lists 20), better to understand that Jesus died & was buried late Wednesday, His body left in the tomb on Thursday (Passover Sabbath), and then embalmed on Friday (day between the Sabbaths)
   3.) Fits typology - Christ presented as Lamb on Nisan 10 (Saturday) at Triumphal Entry
   4.) No silent days in week

3a. CRITIQUE of this position
   1.) This view concludes either that Jesus rose on Saturday, or that He rose on the fourth day; NT says He rose on third day (Mt 16:21; 17:23; 20:19; 27:4; Lk 9:22; 18:33; 24:7,21,46; Jn 2:19-22; Ac 10:40; 1 Cor 15:4)
   2.) "Three days and three nights" (Mt 12:40) is an idiomical expression - means the third day (See on this under Friday consideration.)
   3.) If "three days and three nights" = exactly 72 hours, Jesus must have risen no later than 6 pm on Saturday; why have Christians always celebrated resurrection on Sunday, if it occurred on Saturday?
   4.) Many of the events between death and burial happened simultaneously - involved different persons, groups of persons.
   5.) Places Triumphal Entry on Saturday (Sabbath) - unlikely because then Jesus riding on donkey was violation of Levitical law (Deut 5:14), as was cutting of palm trees (cp Num 15:32-36).

2a. ARGUMENTS for this position (B. F. Westcott, Roy Aldrich)
   1.) Body in tomb for three nights, two days and part of third day
   2.) Triumphal entry on Nisan 10 (Sunday) fulfills typology
   3.) No silent day in week
   4.) John 19:31 - "sabbath" refers to Friday, Nisan 15, the day after Passover - which was the day of Unleavened Bread, a day when no one was to work (Lev 23:7). [The point - the mention of "sabbath" in Jn 19:31 is not a reference to the seventh day of the week, but to this day on which no work was to be done.)
   5.) Mt 28:1 - "sabbaths" is plural, indicating 2 Sabbaths in a row that week (i.e., Day of Unleavened Bread, followed by weekly sabbath).
B341 Words and Works of Christ

3a. CRITIQUE of this view

1. "Three days & three nights" (Mt 12:40) - refers to "the third day" (see below)

2. No evidence anywhere that day of Unleavened Bread, because it was a day when no work was to be done, was ever referred to as a "sabbath"

3. Plural of "sabbath" in Mt 28:1-13/3 of the uses of the term in the NT are plural; Mt 12:1-12, both singular & plural used, referring to same day.

4. Must take Jn 19:14 - "preparation of the Passover" - to mean Wednesday, the day before the Passover; that expression always means Friday, the preparation for the weekly sabbath.

   --compare Mk 15:42; the "day of preparation" is specifically said to be "the day before the sabbath"

5. Jn 19:31,42 specifically state that the Pharisees hurried to have Jesus in the tomb on the "day of preparation" so that He would not be on the cross "on the sabbath"

2a. ARGUMENTS for this position

1. Jesus prophesied that He would rise on the third day (Mt 16:21; Mk 8:31; Jn 9:22); and Gospels give impression He did rise on third day.

2. Jesus' body laid in tomb on evening of the day of preparation (i.e., preparation for the Sabbath), which is called the day before the Sabbath (Mt 27:62; 28:1; Mk 15:42; Lk 23:54,56; Jn 19:31,42).

3. The women returned home and rested on the Sabbath (Lk 23:56), and then returned to the tomb early on the first day of the week (Sunday) and found it empty (Mt 28:1; Mk 16:1,2; Lk 24:1; Jn 20:1).

4. On the day Jesus rose from the dead; He walked with 2 disciples on the road to Emmaus (Lk 24:13); they said it was the third day since their Master was crucified (Lk 24:21).

3a. CRITIQUE of this view

1. Mt 12:40 - no three days and three nights

   BUT -

   a.) NT speaks of resurrection on the third day (Mt 16:21; 17:23; 20:19; 27:64; Lk 9:22; 18:31; 24:7,21,46; Ac 10:40; 1 Cor 15:4; Jn 2:19-22)

   Compare "after three days" (Mt 27:63; Mk 8:31; 9:31; 10:33) - must be equivalent to "on the third day" b.) Mt 27:63 - Pharisees remember that Jesus predicted He would rise "after 3 days," and ask for soldiers to guard tomb "until the third day."

   c.) In OT, "3 days and 3 nights" - on the 3rd day

   Gen 42:17,18; 1 Kings 20:29 [7 days]; 2 Chron 10:5,12; Esther 4:16; 5:1; 1 Samuel 30:12,13.

   d.) Jewish literature: Rabbi Eleazar ben Azariah (lived ca AD 100) stated: "A day and night are an Onah [i.e., 'a portion of time'], and the portion of an Onah is as the whole of it."

2. Necessitates a "silent day" on Wednesday

   --unless Triumphal Entry is placed on Monday (as per Hoehner)
